

INFORMATION WANTED ON FATAL HIT AND RUN

The Camden County Prosecutor's Office and Audubon Police Department are seeking information about a fatal hit and run that killed a pedestrian in Audubon.

Christopher Dean, 36, of Audubon, was found lying on the side of road near the intersection of West Graisbury and East Atlantic avenues at approximately 10:40 p.m. April 9, 2015.

He was transported by ambulance to Our Lady of Lourdes Hospital in Camden, where he succumbed to his injuries and was pronounced deceased at 11:42 p.m.

An autopsy was conducted and a medical examiner ruled Dean's cause of death to be blunt force trauma consistent to being struck by a motor vehicle. The manner of his death is pending.
